

"Life appears to me too short to be spent in nursing animosity, or registering wrongs."

Charlotte Brontë

"I love you the more in that I believe you had liked me for my own sake and for nothing else."

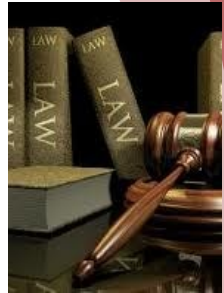

John Keats

Why Study

English - Extension 1 & 2

Are you interested in a career in

- Research
- Journalism
- Media
- Law
- Writing
- Humanities
- English teaching

Course Description

In the Preliminary English (Extension) Course, students explore how and why texts are valued in and appropriated into a range of contexts. They consider why some texts may be perceived as culturally significant.

In HSC English Extension Course 1, students explore ideas of value and consider how cultural values and systems of valuation arise.

In HSC English Extension Course 2, students develop a sustained composition, and document their reflection on this process.

Topics Covered

Preliminary Extension Course

The course has one mandatory module: Texts, Culture and Value. Students study a classic text and a variety of its appropriations.

HSC English Extension Course 1

The course has one module. Students must complete one elective chosen from one of the three modules offered for study:

Module A: Genre.

Module B: Texts and Ways of Thinking.

Module C: Language and Values.

HSC English Extension Course 2

The course requires students to complete a major work module, as well as a journal in which they document the process of composing their major work.