Blayney High Bulletin - Issue 3 Term 3 - Week 6

28 August 2020

Senior Leaders

This week we had our Senior Leadership Team speeches and have been conducting the whole school vote. By early next week we will know our 2021 Senior Leadership Team and will begin the voting process for our new School Captains. I congratulate all candidates on their speeches and look forward to working with the successful candidates.

2021 Timetable

We are putting the final touches on the Year 11 subject selections. All students have been sent home with their final choice form to get this signed by parents before we lock these choices into the 2021 timetable. In the next few weeks we will be starting the process of Year 8 into 9 elective choices.

Year 11 Exams

With Year 11 only having 3 terms in their academic year we are rapidly approaching the start of their HSC. In Week 9 final exams will be held in all courses before the HSC begins in Term 4. Students will shortly receive information regarding the organisation of these critical assessments.

End of Year 12 arrangements

As has been widely reported in the media we are not able to hold any formal occasions during Term 3 that include parents or other outside visitors. Rest assured we are doing everything we can to continue to look at options to hold a Formal Assembly as well as the Graduation Dinner. These event will be held in Term 4 and will be in line with the Department of Education's guidelines that exist at the time

Kind regards,
John Browett
Principal
